New Thrills and Spills Promised at Model-T Races

Wide Variety of Events To Feature 'Lizzy Derby'

Holding back the usual warm breezes and sunny skies which, according to climatic custom mark the months of April and May, the weatherman Thursday appeared about ready to bring the summer zephyrs out of his bag of tricks just in time for the annual Empire Day Model-T race meet at the Exhibition grounds.

AS USUAL, the "tin lizzie derby" this year is being sponsored jointly by the Edmonton Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Lions club of Edmonton. The thrill-packed racing events are scheduled to get underway at 1:30 p.m. Friday, heralding an afternoon of outstanding, rip-roaring contests.

Officials of the sponsoring organizations were anticipating an even more exciting afternoon than was enjoyed by 10,000 fans this time last year.

Last May 24, three minor accidents failed to mar the fun which highlighted the tin can race meet from start to finish. Nor did unreasonable cold weather dig into the affair to any extent. Con Heighington and his contemporaries outdid themselves in providing the "sheer McCoy" in daredevil driving, with Heighington's efforts winning him the Northern Alberta championship, $50 cash money and the Hudson's Bay Company challenge cup.

ALL THAT HOWEVER, thrilling though it was, is now deep in the record books.

Come Friday there'll be a new set of thrills and spills, with valuable prizes up for competition between drivers from all parts of Central and Northern Alberta.

Arthur Young, president of the Lions club and Johnnie McIntyre, retiring president of the Junior Chamber, together with their energetic joint committee, have spared no effort in drawing up a dirt track cord that will please the most discerning sports fan.

In addition to the more than a dozen racing car events, there is a 30-yard soap box derby lined up, with prizes amounting to $85 for the clever—and lucky—Edmonton youngsters who carry off the honors.

ATTENDANCE PRIZES, including men's and women's wrist watches, await some lucky winners. On the laugh-snuffing side of the ledger, there is a "Fat Man's Model-T Race" and listed under the heading "Thrills" is the amazing spectacle of a motorcycle crashing through a wall of flame.

Judge in chief of the races is James Kellas, assisted by Lion Dirk Thompson, Lion Elmer Logan, and Lion Doug Thompson. These four gentlemen have acted in this capacity for the last three years in Edmonton and Red Deer Model-T racing.

Members of the YMCA will sponsor a weight-lifting contest, an event which is expected to stimulate considerable interest locally since weight-lifting as a sport has never before received as public a display of the skill involved.

GRAND PRIZE in the soap box derby is a two-week vacation at the popular YMCA summer camp, Kee-Way-Doin, at Lake Wabamun.

The track has been given considerable care in getting it into shape for the auto races. Corners have been boarded up and the track surface improved to a large extent. The Edmonton Schoolboys' band will provide the in-between-event music.

The show will be officially opened by Mayor Harry Ainlay, who is slated to be present with other civic officials, together with a delegation from Red Deer, including the Edmonton Schoolboys' band.

ALBERTA CHAMPION: Shown above is Driver Tommy Villetard, Ernie Dietrich and the Dietrich Men's Shop entry in the Model T race meet at the Exhibition Grounds on Oct. 9 last year. Villetard won the fifth and championship event of the day, leaving the rest of the field in a cloud of gas fumes.

ing Gordon Sorenson of the Central Alberta town's Lions club. Mr. Sorenson's visit to the Edmonton meet will be returned when members of the two sponsoring Edmonton organizations visit the Red Deer Model-T race July 1. Mr. Sorenson will have one entry in the Friday show.

TRACK MARSHAL is Gordon Smeitler. The program follows: The first race, after the opening ceremonies, will be followed by the motorcycle and the wall-of-flame event. Then, prior to the second race, eight members of the YMCA will stage their weight-lifting demonstration. After the second and medical health benefits. In a nutshell, resources in the province would be used to back social benefits and adjust prices.

Premier John Hart of British Columbia has not commented. Premier Douglas of Saskatchewan is considering a statement. For Manitoba, Attorney-General J. O. McLenaghan said yesterday Manitoba will not join in the appeal on the question of the bill's validity.

ONTARIO Attorney-General Leslie Blackwell said he preferred not to make public the reply he had already sent to Attorney-General Maynard at Edmonton, although he had no objections if the Alberta attorney-general wished to make the correspondence public.

Premier Maurice Duplessis of Quebec said he had received the Alberta communication and the bill and would "study it with care."

"The project is very interesting," he said.

At Halifax, Premier Angus L. Macdonald of Nova Scotia said he didn't know anything about the Alberta bill.

And Premier Jones of Prince Edward Island acknowledged he had received a letter from Edmonton, but he said he didn't think the question was one of great interest.

MORE HORSEMEAT

CHICAGO, May 23 (AP)—Horse slaughtering in 1946, it was estimated at the Chicago stock yards yesterday, will reach an all-time high, with more than 150,000 horses going on the butcher block for human consumption, more than double last year's total of 77,897. In 1940 packers under Federal inspection slaughtered 18,750 horses.

B. C. Strike

Another 1,000 workers struck in the northern district yesterday, but the union estimated that, during the last week about 2,000 workers have gone back to their jobs, thus leaving 36,000 still idle.

Chairman of the gathering, attended by 200 members, was Paul Britton, retiring executive vice-president.

"The 24th"

May 24th long since lost its original significance. Queen Victoria died forty-five years ago. Four kings have reigned in her stead. During ten years of this interval the Empire has been fighting for its life and for the type of government which originated in the British Isles, and which during Victoria's life-time was established in Canada, Australia and New Zealand.

Across the years and the chaotic upheavals it is difficult to recall that this day first came to be celebrated as the birthday of the Great Queen; that she was born four years after the battle of Waterloo, and occupied the throne for sixty-four years.

But if it has ceased to be a birthday anniversary it is still "The 24th" to Canadians, young and old. No other public holiday in the summer season rivals it in popularity; perhaps because it is the first of these when—weather permitting—summer sports, hikes, picnics and all sorts of outdoor activities can be staged.

To the younger generation "The 24th" holds traditions which take the rank of inalienable rights. It is the day of days for exploding fire crackers and otherwise and generally celebrating the advent of summer with its outings and recreations. These traditions are inherited. The oldest can remember when they, too, did just such things. From which we may gather that "The 24th" is likely to endure, for each generation adds to the impelling authority of these associations.

Untidy Streets

Edmonton's streets will never take on the appearance of tidiness commensurate with the size and dignity of this community until a large-scale paving program is completed.

Nevertheless, Edmonton citizens can do a great deal towards improving the appearance of downtown streets, at least, by using the receptacles that are provided on street corners for the deposit of refuse and litter.

It does not require much of the street-cornor boxes would immeasurably improve the appearance of the downtown districts.

A Public Right

Government seizure of the soft coal mines and railways in the United States was inevitable in the circumstances. Neither the Government, nor the operators or the employees of the mines and railways wanted this to happen, and neither was it to continue. Seizure was a socializing policy, but a last resort expedient adopted to avert the hardships which must fall upon the public if the miners stopped work again and the trains stopped running. It is the assertion of the right and intent of the public to have coal and transportation.

Whether the expedient will accomplish the purpose no person can know until it is tested. The supposition in all such cases is that men who will no longer work for their employers will work for the government. Should they refuse, they would be in the position of defying the national authority.

That is why President Truman hesitated about issuing the seizure orders. These could result in hundreds of thousands of men becoming outlaws. It is no light thing to tell great numbers of free citizens of a democracy that they "must" work in peacetime.

One good must result from the seizure, whatever the immediate outcome. It declares that people have a right to a continuous supply of the things and services which are necessary to normal living; that no group or groups are entitled to shut off these vital supplies and services arbitrarily; and that whoever does this is challenging the power of the state.

These are facts which need to be proclaimed and emphasized at this time, in Canada as well as in the United States.

A Worthwhile Career

For some years a sort of implicit stigma has fallen upon the professional serviceman. For no particularly good reason the general public has acquired the habit of regarding the peacetime naval and military man as a genial kind of misfit who pursues the business of national defence because he is not very admirably fitted for anything else.

If this were ever true, it is completely false now. The forces today offer worthwhile careers for any young Canadians.

The Royal Canadian Air Force, for instance, whose recruiting offices are now open, offers to 10,000 young men an excellent opportunity for useful service and promotion. First opportunity to enlist is given to those who served in the war years. They will receive credit for the time spent in the service prior to re-enlistment, and this service will be taken into account in computing pensions.

Air Force pay, in the ranks, is better than it was. An aircraftman second class starts at $50 a month. He may rise to the status of warrant officer first class when, after six years, he will have a basic pay of $135 per month plus travel pay and free rations and quarters as well as clothing and medical, dental and hospital care.

He can learn a profitable trade during his term of enlistment so that if he chooses to leave the service he can always be sure of a good living.

Young Canadians would do well to give careful thought to the RCAF as a settled life occupation.

The Price of Milk

The price of milk will not go up on June 1st. It will remain what it is now and has been. But the buyer will pay the whole price at the door-step or the counter.

Since 1942 the buyer has been paying the milk-man or the grocer two cents per quart less than the established price. The federal treasury paid the dealer the other two cents as a subsidy—and of course collected the money from government and producers through income and other taxes.

After June 1st the treasury will pay no subsidy—and collect no subsidy money. The consumer will have to pay extra only the fraction of the two cents which the producer has been paying through taxes. Though he will pay the whole price directly. The dealer will get no more than he has been getting.

Where there are children in the home the consumer will be less out of pocket for the same amount of milk than he was in 1942. He is entitled to receive from the Dominion treasury every month Family Allowances in proportion to the number and age of his children. There were no such allowances in 1942.

These allowances are earmarked to help the family man buy food and other necessities for his children. Whether he has one child or more than one, the allowances will more than meet the extra two cents per quart which he will have to pay directly for milk—and he will pay no part of the price indirectly, as in the past.

Nor is it to be overlooked that childless people, the milk-producer, and the dealer will help to provide the tax-money out of which the Family Allowances are paid.

Gaulter Frank Frank has paid with his life for the massacre of the men and boys of Lidice and the unknown fate to which he consigned the women and girls of that little village. It speaks well for the Czechoslovak authorities that they gave him the benefit of a fair trial and punished him according to law. No man could less deserve such consideration.

Ten thousand Ford employees at Windsor have been laid off because of the soft coal strike in the United States. They were laid off a few weeks ago because of the steel strike. And before that they went on strike and stayed out for three months. How long will it take them to save up as much money as they had when they quit work last September?

London reports that British exports are increasing and have been for some months, at the rate of seven or eight per cent per month. April figures showed a betterment of £2,300,000 over March returns. There can't be many tie-ups in production over there.

The minister of the interior has been requested to have the Land Act amended to allow for eight instead of ten years interest on loans to homestead immigrants. All, of course, in the interests of the poor homesteaders.

Judge Brooks of Sherbrooke, Eastern Townships of Quebec, who is mentioned as the probable successor of Lieutenant-Governor Dewdney... will doubtless... be given a more cordial reception than his predecessor and... will not be called upon to do so much dirty work for the powers that be. No doubt his judicial experience will enable him at least to distinguish clearly between right and wrong, a faculty entirely absent in the present or late incumbent.

Great Power Confusion

By Dorothy Thompson

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

Oaks plan, for the control of the world.

OUR OVER-ALL world peace rests on a condominium of the three great powers, none of whom accepts any restrictions. It was anticipated that clashes between them would be avoided by the creation of spheres of orbits. For this conception Mr. Lippmann himself has been the most brilliant apologist.

Yet the great power condominium and the "orbit" concept have been leading inexorably to the gravitation of the smaller or defeated states, voluntarily or involuntarily, into the sphere of one or the other of the great powers, thus removing the elements of elasticity, which have always furnished a check upon great power expansion and tyranny. At the beginning of this war there were eleven small and medium-sized states in Eastern Europe which could have acted as a check on any superstate absorbing their power, today there is just one controlling power east of Germany.

This concept led, through Poland, to the first partition of Europe. And in Germany itself, the United States, Great Britain, and the USSR all met.

THEY MEET, by reason of Germany's unconditional surrender, in a complete vacuum. There is no German government. Nor have the Allies jointly taken over Germany.

By Harper Prowse, M.L.A.

Usually, one of the first things a veteran does when he begins to work on a new job, is the "dope" on the boss. This information is given absolutely free and with great enthusiasm by fellow employees, who, having worked for the boss for a considerable period of time have had an opportunity of getting the facts.

The facts are nearly always a little disconcerting to the new employee. Besides all seem to be a strange class of men. Many of them have sprung from the most unusual line of progenitors. The veteran is reminded of the old army story which ends up with the question: "Where do you think they get our sergeant-major?" These stories all have a familiar ring. Most veterans have sense enough to realize what it is all about and not take them seriously.

But to those veterans who are taking jobs for the first time in a new line of work, the first thing they hear is a few words of explanation, and of warning, won't go far.

For reasons which it isn't necessary to dwell upon there are many employees who have developed the ability to hate the boss to an unusual degree. To hear them tell it is so simple to get the first thing they hear is a few words of explanation, and of warning, won't go far.

THE VETERAN going on a new job will then be well advised to form his own opinions, based on his own observations.

If your boss isn't treating you fairly then the thing to do is to quit and find another job. If he is treating you fairly then the thing to do is to give him all the support of which you are capable. If it appears to him that you are worth more than he is paying you, then you can be sure that he will see that you get promotions or increases in order that he may not lose your services.

Finally, the ability of the boss to treat you well, to give you promotions or increases, depends primarily on how well his business does.

IF YOU REMEMBER these things, and be suspicious of the man who tries to make you believe that your interests are any different from the bosses' you'll find your boss is a pretty good fellow to work for.

PARIS—The chief cause of the failure of the Four Power Paris conference to agree on the draft peace treaties was that Russia did not desire agreement unless it was on her terms. Since neither Byrnes, Bidault nor Bevin were ready to be partners to another Munich it was inevitable.

But since four Foreign Ministers are to meet next month, it may be useful to examine what the main stumbling blocks are. First, there was the future of the Balkans. This proved less difficult than at previous conferences. The future of the Balkans is now history. The Russians have achieved a unilateral settlement which no one thinks it worthwhile seriously to question.

The future of Germany the Russians do not want to discuss until November. This also will settle itself. Eastern Germany already is virtually annexed by the Russians. It only remains for the French, British and Americans to decide what policy they wish to pursue in Western and Southwestern Germany.

Another stumbling block was the disposition of Tripolitania. Molotov eventually withdrew the Russian claim to this territory, thus confirming what had been suspected—that the Russian claim was purely a bargaining counter.

It says much for the realism and idealism of Byrnes and Bevin that they refused to regard the withdrawal of this territorial claim as a concession and to pay any price in other peoples' lives and territories in return.

Molotov refused to discuss the future of Austria.

Of all the topics, one on which the deadlock was complete was reason why adjacent groups of farmers should not combine to do their selling. There are regions in Canada where from 12 to 20 farmers have got together under this system. Instead of each man buying his own equipment, his own seed, fertilizers and other needs, they buy as a unit. By cooperative efforts they get their seedling, plowing and other work done at the right seasons, and by buying in quantities they get their supplies cheaper.

IT WOULD SEEM well worthwhile for Mr. Bevin or Mr. Byrnes to instruct their deputies to raise this matter in the discussions which are to take place prior to the renewed meeting of the four foreign ministers. Neither would dare challenge such a decision, for it would mean challenging fifty-one United Nations states, most of which have not been discussed by the deputies of the foreign ministers.

The Bulletin's SPORT SHOW by Hal Dean

SPORTS EDITOR

ESKIMOS aren't cold weather operatives after all. At least that's the way things appeared down at Renfrew Park in Wednesday night's initial senior session when their igloo fell in just when most of the shivering onlookers were ready to concede them a win.

Bert Carver's club outfit the Little Bears 10 to 7 and made one error, but several of the Eskimos' misdeeds figured in the runs tallied by the Cubs who earned only three out of eight.

It was a good ball game for the first four innings. Just two errors had been made by each club up to that stage and Eskimos were leading 2-1. Connie Thomson, the Washington pitcher, had given up only a pair of singles, one by Art Ward in the first frame and Nick Maskeewich in the fourth.

THOMSON was nipped for only one error in the fifth when the Cubs counted three runs. Another home single, plus a wild pitch meant a counter in the sixth. And in the seventh his hit by play, which Ralph Morgan collected in the seventh, Maskeewich, which was intended for a sacrifice, and Morgan's game winner were made off Lefty Belter.

Martin muffed four out of five chances for assists at short, but he came up with two good hits in four attempts and it was his fly when Norm Carney misjudged in the fifth that sent two runners (Stewart and Eider) scurrying across the plate.

No doubt the cold weather had considerable to do with the error epidemic, but 13 are too many and make it tough for pitchers. It was a small crowd for an opener, but there are 1,000 fans in Edmonton who like their ball regardless of weather.

IMMEDIATELY prior to the start of the game, Navy, Army and RCMP representatives participated in the flag-raising ceremony, while the Edmonton Schoolboys' Band, under the direction of Bandmaster

Morgan's Hit Drives Home Payoff Runs

Playing in weather better suited to football and before an opening-game crowd of 1,050 chilled customers, Cubs finished in front of the Eskimos 8-7, as the Edmonton Senior Baseball League's 1946 schedule got under way at Renfrew Park on Wednesday night.

Cubs, who had entered the seventh with a three-run advantage, apparently had tossed the game away when three errors by Shortstop Martin and hits by Stevenson, Newman (a triple) and Finn (a double) produced five counters for Eskimos.

However, a walk to Doug Stewart, which started off the Cub half, along with an error by Second-base Pinner, who was hit by a foul, was a forfeit, both ahead of successive singles by Martin, Maskeewich and Morgan, netted three runs to leave the score 8-7 when Empire Fred Lupul halted the session on account of darkness at the end of the inning. Morgan's single drove in the tying and winning runs.

Tommy Brant, who relieved Pinner, Stoneshill with three runs in and two runners on in the seventh, received credit for stolen base as well as the run.

Third-base Dean got two breaks in the sixth, Seaman failed to make the catch on a foul and Dean finally reached first when Pinner Stoneshill dropped his fly ball. Two errors were charged.

Fielding feature of the game was Al Superville's backhand catch of Flores' long drive in the second. Roy Dean made a diving save of the Edmonton Schoolboys' Band, under the direction of Bandmaster

Walk-Rites Blank Rovers For Fifth Straight Triumph

Walk-Rites took their fifth game in as many starts in the City Senior Girls' Football League Wednesday night by shutting out the Intermediate Rovers 7-0 at Kingsway Park.

Betty Carver had a standout job on the mound for Walk-Rites, holding the 11 Rovers batters who faced her to two hits, allowing one walk and striking out 10.

After a scoreless opening inning the Walk-Rites grabbed a 3-0 lead in the second, Connie Wilton, Francis Zavitz and Marg Royce making the runs.

No runs were made in the third or fourth but in the fifth inning Walk-Rites took pitcher Milt Brown for five hits and boosted the lead to 6-0. Mickey McConnell, Edna Ward and Isabel Whitley coming home.

Marg Royce went to first in the sixth on an error, made second on a passed ball and scored the final run when Mickey McConnell got on base on an error.

Williams' Homer in 12th Gives Boston Sox 7-4 Win

NEW YORK, May 23.—(AP)—Ted Williams scored for the Boston Red Sox, American Baseball League leaders, against yesterday.

Canadians Beat EAC 9-3 To Register First Victory

Canadians came along to score one run in the sixth to break a 3-3 tie and then took advantage of an EAC "blow up" in the last frame of a seven-inning contest to defeat Edmonton Athletic Club 9-3 in an Edmonton Junior Baseball League clash at Clarke Stadium Wednesday night.

Ron Matthews, smooth working defenceman when he's on the ice, look over when the score-board read 3-3 at the end of four innings and blanked the Clubmen for the remaining three frames while the Canadians were marking up six runs, to receive credit for Canada's initial victory of the season.

Matthews, a southpaw who heaves a fast ball, replaced Bob Fleming when the latter began to tire after four frames.

The deciding run came in the sixth when Glen Bjarnsen batted in Cy Thomas with a sharp single to left field. Thomas reached first on an infield safety and went to second when Norm Kimball overthrew first.

In the big seventh, Canadians came through with three hits, one a double by Jack Sudden that sent two runners across the plate, and the others singles by Fleming and Bjarnsen, and took advantage of three errors in scoring their five.

Needs of Church Stressed at Meet

Two supreme needs of the United Church in Alberta, were stressed by the Rev. J. W. Bainbridge, president of the Alberta Conference of the United Church of Canada, given to conference members meeting in McDougall United Church Wednesday evening.

THE FIRST GREAT need according to the Rev. Bainbridge, is a clear understanding of the gospel, that they, as a church preach. This gospel is expressed under the three fold heading, the Fatherhood of God, the Brotherhood of Man and the Stewardship of goods for the service and salvation of mankind.

"Secondly," Mr. Bainbridge said, "I have come to realize that we as a church need to make more adequate provision to handle the crusade by which we are presenting this gospel." He suggested that a crusade missioner be appointed to give specific leadership all over the province.

IN THE YEAR ahead of us," he said, "God needs our whole-hearted co-operation and He will guarantee success."

Further highlights of the evening session were an address by the Rev. R. C. Chalmers and a worship service conducted by the Rev. R. Magowan.

The Thursday session was opened by a morning worship service conducted by the Rev. Dr. Willard Brewing of Toronto.

All-Alberta Firm Gets Gold Claims

Option on a promising group of claims on Gordon Lake, 60 miles northeast of Yellowknife has been obtained by an all-Alberta company to be known as Northern Resources Ltd. It was announced Thursday by James "Jim" McAvoy, managing director of the company and veteran northland gold mining prospector and developer.

THE CLAIMS optioned by Northern Resources Ltd. are well-known as the Northrop group and are situated in a district where many rich strikes have previously been made.

Claims involve about 500 acres on the east shore of Gordon Lake, which can be reached in half an hour from the town of Yellowknife by air.

One vein that has been explored through drilling lies across an island and runs for 40 feet with a width of 18 inches. This shows an abundance of free gold.

Two grab samples have been analyzed.

Roy Harris Takes Bride

Baskets of tall pink and white hydrangeas formed the setting in today's Trinity church, Wednesday, at 8 p.m., for the double-ring wedding ceremony of Miss Isabel Thompson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson of Edmonton, and Roy Arthur Harris, youngest son of Mr. W. Harris, also of Edmonton. The Rev. W. M. Nalaby officiated. Herbert Reid played the wedding music and during the signing of the register, Miss Evelyn Taylor sang "O Promise Me".

ENTERING the church on the arm of her father, the bride was gown in white satin, fashioned with a V-shaped neckline, lace yoke and satin-covered buttons running from neckline to waist. The long sleeves, styled with a fullness at the shoulder, tapered to rilly points over the wrists and the long-length waistline fell to a full skirt. Panels of lace trimmed the waistline. Her floor-length veil was held to her head with a coronet of pearls, blossoms and she carried a bouquet of red roses and white lilies. Her only jewelry was an heirloom locket.

Harry Stiles was best man and ushers were Paul Martell and Douglas Harris. After the ceremony a reception to 40 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table, laid in white linen, was centred with a three-tiered

Mrs. J. Gow Guest Speaker

Speaking to the CCF Women's club Monday evening, Mrs. J. Gow said that when the New Zealand government took office in 1933,

In their first three years of office, she said, unemployment had been abolished and the national overseas debt has now been reduced by 25 million pounds or approximately 125 million dollars. A government housing scheme, operating as a debt free project, has resulted in 16,500 low rental homes for workers and the free medicine and hospitalization plan has produced excellent health records.

Mrs. D. L. Shortcliffe, convenor for bazaar work, reported more than $100 profit on the Easter tea and sale of work.

Prior to the meeting a dinner was held at which a birthday cake was presented to Dr. McNeave, Minister, veteran member of the CCF. The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Adair.

STRONG AND HEALTHY

SCIENCE has proved there are certain food elements everyone needs for health. If there aren't enough of them in a child's food, serious things can happen—such as stunted growth, soft bones, poor teeth, faulty nerves, loss of appetite, defective eyesight.

Ovaltine supplements the diet with elements frequently deficient in ordinary foods. Three servings of Ovaltine furnish a significant portion of a child's daily requirements of Vitamins A, B, D, Riboflavin (G), Calcium and Minerals Calcium, Phosphorus and Iron.

In addition it provides the basic food substances—carbohydrates, proteins, to build muscle, nerve and body cells—high-energy foods for vitality and endurance. It thus acts as an insurance against food deficiencies that retard normal growth.

So if your child eats poorly, is thin, undernourished, nervous, why not try delicious Ovaltine for normal growth and better appetite.

NOW ... it's the KITCHEN OF Tomorrow

Sponsored By Hobbs Glass Limited, and Presented Across Canada
By EATON'S

Opens
Saturday

A dream of modern convenience picked right out of the world of Domestic Development and planted on the Lower Floor at EATON'S. It's the streamlined version of the kitchen of the future—a study in modern space-and-work economy. Plastic and glass that give an illusion of cool, clean sunshine, are used throughout the kitchen and dinette. The walls are of plastic impregnated plywood and resemble beautifully finished walnut.

"Lazy Susan" Cabinet

A cabinet, which includes a glass enclosed space for dishes and a refrigerating unit, open on either side, divides the kitchen and dinette. The future refrigerator is 12 cubic feet in contrast with the present refrigerators which contain only 6 to 8 cubic feet. You'll love the cabinet's "Lazy Susan" feature. This is a revolving circular shelf which is operated by the mere touch of a little button. It carries salads from the kitchen side of the cabinet to the dinette.

Other Conveniences

Modernized lighting is attached to all features which light up when opened. The sink has a "dial" control which replaces the ordinary faucet. This control can be operated by foot. The disposal system is really a dream and should meet with the approval of the city's sanitation system. A serving wagon placed beside the stove is used for transporting china, silverware and linen necessary for setting the table. It is also equipped with special containers for the cooking utensils, which can be lifted from the stove to the wagon, and easily taken from the stove to the dinette. There's a working counter that contains bins for vegetables and drawers for cutlery and utensils. The kitchen fittings can all be built to a woman's height to eliminate unnecessary stooping and reaching. When not in use, the working parts of the kitchen can be covered quickly with plywood covers that match the woodwork. These form a neat, even counter and provide extra room for entertaining.

Daily Demonstration

See this colorful, precision-built display—a preview of the world of tomorrow—in a world in which dreams come true. The Kitchen of Tomorrow. Commencing Saturday, Miss Ruth Hamilton, of Hobbs Glass Limited, will lecture and demonstrate in this full-size example of the Kitchen of the Future daily at 10:30, 11:30, 12:30, 2:30 and 3:30. Wednesday at 10:00 and 11:00 only. Here until Saturday, June 8th.

New Type Stove

The stove is installed at a convenient height for the average woman. All the cooking elements are at the back for safety purposes. The cooking utensils are set right into the stove and have breakproof tops. The tempered glass oven door shows baking and roasting processes and it also features a turning rod for barbecuing steaks and chickens. As well as self-contained cooking utensils, the stove has built-in toaster and waffle iron.
